Learned counsel for the petitioner admits that all the retiral benefits have been released to the petitioner. Now the prayer is only for grant of interest on the delayed payment. The petitioner is stated to have retired on 30.6.2010.

Since, the retiral benefits were released with delay, the petitioner is entitled to interest @ 9% per annum starting three months from the date of retirement till actual payment. The respondents are directed to release the said interest within two months.

However, learned counsel for the petitioner states that the salary has not been paid for the suspension period, for which, he will file a separate petition to claim the said benefit.

The writ petition stands disposed of accordingly.
