

962.

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

FAO No.977 of 2009 (O&M)

Date of decision:15.02.2016

Oriental Insurance Company Limited

... Appellant

versus

Fazru and others

.... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE K. KANNAN

Present: Mr. Ashwani Talwar, Advocate, for the appellant.

Mr. Rajesh Bhateja, Advocate,
for respondent No.4.

Mr. Neeraj Khanna, Advocate,
for Mr. Ravinder Arora, Advocate,
for respondent No.6.

K.Kannan, J. (Oral)

The Oriental Insurance Company that was made liable for a policy that was admittedly said to subsist and brought out through a cover note is in appeal to contend that in respect of the very same accident, the National Insurance Company had also issued a cover note in relation to the vehicle that was involved in the accident. National Insurance Company, however, had not been made as a party before the trial court and sought to be impleaded through an application in this court. I do not think it is necessary to engage in any adjudication of inter se liability and apportionment issues between the insurers, for, both of them are fully owned government companies and the Insurance Companies themselves may engage in any form of dialogue for resolving their inter se liability. There shall be no need for rendering adjudication in such an issue and I proceed to dismiss the appeal as requiring no interference with the award. The appeal is dismissed.
