RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J

Feeling aggrieved against the alleged inaction on the part of respondent authorities, petitioner has approached this court by way of present writ petition, under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India, seeking a writ in the nature of Mandamus.

Learned counsel for the petitioner, at the very outset, fairly states that since the present writ petition is lacking in particulars, specially in the absence of the appropriate policy issued by the respondent authorities, on which the petitioner is seeking to base his claim, he may be permitted to withdraw the present writ petition, with liberty to file fresh one on the same cause of action, but with better particulars and attaching all the relevant documents, including the relevant policy dated 31.10.2014.

Permission is granted.

Dismissed as withdrawn, with liberty as prayed for.
