Vs.

State of Punjab and others

.....Respondents

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK

Present : Mr. M.S. Basra, Advocate for the petitioners.

RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK J. (ORAL)

In compliance of the order dated 19.9.2016 passed by this court, learned counsel for the petitioners fairly states that after going through the relevant provisions of law, he has come to know that the impugned order is revisable. It is also not in dispute that the petitioners have not availed their equally efficacious remedy of revision against the impugned order before filing the present writ petition.

In view of the above, petitioners are relegated to their equally efficacious alternative remedy of revision against the impugned order. However, it is made clear that owing to the nature and urgency of the matter, the revisional authority is directed that as and when the petitioners file their revision petition alongwith application for stay, the same shall be considered at an early date and atleast the stay matter shall be considered and decided, within a period of one week from the date of filing of the revision petition.

With the above said observations made and directions issued,
the present writ petition stands disposed of.
