RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK J. (ORAL)

It is not in dispute that petitioners have got an equally efficacious alternative remedy before the competent authority under the relevant provisions of Punjab Municipal Act, 1911. It is also not in dispute that petitioners have not availed their alternative remedy before filing the present writ petition. There is no justified reason given for not availing the alternative remedy, before filing the present writ petition.

In view of the above, petitioners are relegated to their equally efficacious alternative remedy before the competent authority, at the first instance.
