RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK J. (ORAL)

Feeling aggrieved against the impugned order dated 15.7.2016 (Annexure P-4) passed by the District Registrar of Societies, petitioner has approached this Court by way of present writ petition under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India, seeking a writ in the nature of Certiorari, for quashing the impugned order.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner.

It is not disputed that the impugned order is appealable. Appeal lies before the State Registrar of Societies, Haryana. Even against the order passed by the State Registrar of Societies, Haryana, petitioner has got another remedy of appeal before the Registrar General of Societies, Haryana. It is also a matter of record that petitioner has not availed his remedy of appeal against the impugned order.

I attest to the accuracy and integrity of this document

In view of the above, present writ petition is disposed of relegating the petitioner to his equally efficacious alternative remedy provided under the relevant provisions of law.

With the abovesaid observations made, present writ petition stands disposed of, accordingly.
