AT CHANDIGARH

Civil Writ Petition No. 20503 of 2016

Date of Decision: 30.9.2016

Jaswinder Singh and others

.....Petitioners

Vs.

Financial Commissioner, Punjab and others

.....Respondents

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK

Present : Mr. Ashish Verma, Advocate for the petitioners.

RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK J. (ORAL)

Learned counsel for the petitioners, at the very outset, fairly states that he does not intend to press this petition qua the writ of Certiorari, because the impugned orders contained in Annexures P-10 to P-12 are already under challenge before the Financial Commissioner in ROR No. 505 of 2016. He further submits that petitioners filed their revision petition before the Financial Commissioner, alongwith an application for stay, however, the matter is not being heard by the Financial Commissioner and bonafide apprehension of the petitioners is that, by lapse of time, their revision petition may not be rendered infructuous.

The alternate prayer made by learned counsel for the petitioners having been found well justified, present writ petition is disposed of with a direction to the Financial Commissioner, Punjab-respondent No.1 to look into the matter. Petitioners shall be at liberty to move a fresh application for preponement of the date of hearing. If such an application is moved by the petitioners, the same shall be entertained by the Financial Commissioner and after preponing the date of hearing, at least the stay matter shall be heard and decided at an early date, so that revision petition filed by the petitioners may not be rendered infructuous. These directions are being issued keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the case.

Let the Financial Commissioner pass an appropriate order at least on the stay application, at an early date, strictly in accordance with law, and in any case within a period of three weeks from the date of receipt of application for preponement on behalf of the petitioners.

With the abovesaid observations made and directions issued, present writ petition stands disposed of.
