2. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest?

RAJIV NARAIN RAINA, J. (Oral)

Heard the learned counsel for the parties.

There is no merit in this petition and it deserves to be dismissed on the short ground that an action taken in 1993 rejecting the petitioner's case for grant of pension under the General Pension Scheme of the Corporation is barred by limitation.

After two decades passing by, he has approached this Court in a petition filed in 2014. The respondents aver that even though the petitioner had exercised his option but did not take steps to deposit the CPF amounts to the pension fund from where he could be brought to pensionable service.

It is too late now to switch over as it will create administrative chaos. Besides he has received all his dues under CPF scheme when he superannuated in the year 31.8.2003 by which act and conduct the petitioner has waived his rights, if any.

This petition has been brought after 11 years of retirement. No ground for interference is made out. It is also dismissed by reason of delay and laches in approaching the Court after enormous delay.

The petition to stand dismissed.
