Ms. Charu Sharma, Advocate for respondents No. 2 and 3.

Rakesh Kumar Jain, J.(Oral)

Counsel for respondents No. 2 and 3 has submitted that this petition has become infructuous because the impugned letter dated 3.04.2015 has been withdrawn.

Counsel for the petitioner has submitted that though the letter has been withdrawn but the security of ₹ 50,000/- which had to be deposited by the petitioner is not being accepted by the said respondents.

Disposed of as infructuous.

Counsel for respondent Nos. 2 and 3 are directed that in case there is no legal impediment, the security of ₹ 50,000/- which is being offered by the petitioner may be accepted.
