RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J

Feeling aggrieved against the alleged in-action on the part of the respondent authorities, petitioner counsel has approached this Court by way of instant writ petition under Article 226 and 227 of the Constitution of India seeking a writ in the nature of mandamus.

Notice of motion was issued, however, no reply has been filed so far despite having been granted as many as four opportunities to the respondents. Combined reading of Annexure P4 to P7 would make it clear that repeated requests had already been made on behalf of the petitioner counsel to the competent authority seeking requisite sanction/approval.

However, no action has been taken so far. No reasons are forthcoming as to requests made on behalf of the petitioner counsel.

In view of the above, present writ petition is disposed off with a direction to the Additional Chief Secretary, Government of Haryana - respondent no.1 to look into the matter, consider the grievances raised on behalf of the petitioner vide communications dated 10.07.2014 (Annexure P4), 16.04.2015 Annexure P5, 17.07.2015 Annexure P6 and 15.10.2015 Annexure P7, on different issues already raised for consideration of respondent no.1. During the process of consideration of the matter, respondent no.1 may grant an opportunity of being heard to the petitioner counsel, in case it is desirable and thereafter an appropriate order shall be passed at an early date, however, strictly in accordance with law but in any case within a period of six months.

With the above said observations made, present writ petition is disposed off.
