Learned counsel for the State has rightly pointed out, while referring to Annexure R-1 that the petitioner has got the equally efficacious alternative remedy at his disposal and he should be directed to avail the said remedy by disposing of the present writ petition.

Confronted with the above-said statement made by the learned counsel for the State, learned counsel for the petitioner had no answer and rightly so, it being a matter of record.

In view of the above-said undisputed fact situation on record, the instant writ petition is disposed of, with liberty to the petitioner to avail his remedy before the appropriate forum, in accordance with law and also as pointed out in Annexure R-1.

Disposed of, accordingly.
