CWP No. 23790 of 2016(O&M)

Date of decision:17.11.2016

Kuldeep Singh

.... Petitioner

Versus

Union of India and others

.... Respondents

CORAM: Hon'ble Mr. Justice P.B. Bajanthri

Present: Mr.Sandeep Parkash Chahar, Advocate for the petitioner.

P.B. Bajanthri, J. (Oral)

In the instant writ petition, the petitioner has questioned the validity of communication dated 30.05.2016 vide Annexure P6 by which the petitioners offer of appointment dated 09.05.2016 to the post of Single Window Operator “A” has been withdrawn for the reasons stated in the communication dated 30.05.2016 that the petitioner do not fulfil the eligibility criteria for PWD (OC) candidates prescribed by IBPS. The petitioner has not questioned the validity of prescribing eligibility criteria for PWD(OC) candidates prescribed by IBPS for the recruitment to the post of Single Window Operator “A” under CWE Clerks-V which is a hurdle for his eligibility and it was made known while advertising post. As long as eligibility criteria is intact, the petitioner cannot contend that there is arbitrary decision while communicating the order dated 30.05.2016 by which his appointment order dated 09.05.2016 has been withdrawn/cancelled.

2. Therefore, the petitioner has not made out a case so as to interfere with the communication dated 30.05.2016 vide Annexure P6.

3. Hence petition stands dismissed.
