

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CWP No.24787 of 2015
Date of Decision : 24.10.2016

Jai Singh Kaushal

..... Petitioner

versus

The Home Secretary Chairman, CITCO and others

..... Respondents

CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE ANUPINDER SINGH GREWAL

Present : Mr. Rajesh Verma, Advocate for the petitioner.

Ms. Madhu Dayal, Advocate for the respondents.

Anupinder Singh Grewal (Oral)

The petitioner is seeking for quashing of order dated 30.10.2015 (Annexure P-11) whereby he was posted at Chef Lakeview.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has contended that the petitioner had been appointed as a Salesman and should be deployed only as a Salesman and not as a Helper.

Learned counsel for the respondents states that the petitioner was afforded personal hearing by the Managing Director and he has now been posted at his previous place of posting as Salesman at Chef Bus Stand Sector 17, Chandigarh.

Learned counsel for the petitioner although does not dispute the contention of the learned counsel for the respondents, he, however, apprehends that the petitioner may again be transferred as Helper.

Be that as it may, the instant petition is for quashing of order dated 30.10.2015 whereby the petitioner was posted at Chef Lakeview. This order is no longer in existence as the petitioner has now been transferred as Salesman at Chef Bus Stand Sector 17, Chandigarh which was his previous place of posting. Therefore, the petition has been rendered infructuous and stands disposed of accordingly.

It shall of course be open to the respondents to approach this Court if any order is passed by the respondents contrary to the Rules and instructions applicable thereto.
