IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CWP No.23946 of 2016
Date of decision:22.12.2016

Sukhjit Singh and others

… Petitioners

Versus

State of Punjab and others

..Respondents.

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJIV NARAIN RAINA

Present: Mr.A.S.Manaise, Advocate for the petitioners.

RAJIV NARAIN RAINA, J.(Oral)

The petitioners have served a legal notice and a reminder thereto claiming service benefits at par with their colleagues, whose services have been regularized w.e.f. the date claimed. The grievance is that the case of the petitioners has been gathered a dust while those who approached Court and got directions for disposal of their representations and notices, have been granted relief. One such order dated 30.10.2015, has been attached as Annexure P-3, passed by the 3rd respondent. The respondents are expected to pass similar orders in similar cases and not compelled people to approach this Court at huge expenses which is also time consuming. The petitioners rely upon Satbir Singh versus State of Haryana and others, 2002 (2) SCT 354, laying down the principle upon which all the three governments i.e. State Government of Punjab, Haryana and U.T. Administration have passed circulars guiding Officers to give relief which have once been directed by the Court or by the Administrator which are final.

In these circumstances, learned counsel for the petitioners would be satisfied if legal notice served by his client, is ordered to be disposed of by passing a speaking order containing reasons for the conclusions.

The respondents would decide the legal notice of the petitioners within two months from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order and convey the same to the petitioners.

With the above observations and directions, the petition stands disposed of.
