SURYA KANT, J.

The instant writ petition has been filed through General Power of Attorney, Pardesh Kumar Gupta, who is present in Court. He has given in writing an application that he does not want to pursue this case and the same may be dismissed as withdrawn unconditionally. Some of the petitioners have separately engaged their counsel through whom they insist to continue with these proceedings.

Since the writ petition was filed through General Power of Attorney holder, who is no longer interested to pursue the same, we dismiss this writ petition as withdrawn but without affecting the rights of the petitioners who, if there is any cause of action, may initiate their own independent proceedings.

Since the main case has been withdrawn, no separate orders are required to be passed in the miscellaneous applications.
