KULDIP SINGH J. (ORAL)

The case of the petitioners is that their father Dhani Ram, who was working as a JBT teacher with respondent-department, had undergone some treatment. Now, he has died on 1.9.2015 in Apollo Hospital, Delhi, for which the medical reimbursement bills have been raised by the petitioners. Now, an objection has been raised by the respondent-department to file succession certificate.

Admittedly, deceased Dhani Ram left behind some other Class-I heirs also in addition to the petitioners. It is open to the petitioners that all the Class-I heirs of Dhani Ram should apply for medical reimbursement and if they want to exclude some other Class-I heirs on the basis of Will, they can get succession certificate, as directed by respondents No. 3 and 4 and file the same before the authorities to claim the medical reimbursement to exclusion of other legal heirs. However, if fresh medical reimbursement is claimed by all the legal heirs, the same shall be processed
