

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CWP No.25119 of 2016

Date of decision: 05.12.2016

Gram Panchayat, Guru Teg Bahadur Nagar (Sathiala)

... Petitioner

Vs.

State of Punjab and others

... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK

Present: Mr. B.S. Jaswal, Advocate for the petitioner.

RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (ORAL)

Feeling aggrieved against the impugned order dated 17.11.2016 (Annexure P-1), petitioner has approached this Court, by way of present writ petition under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India, seeking a writ in the nature of certiorari, for quashing the impugned order.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner.

After hearing the learned counsel for the petitioner, present writ petition has been found wholly misconceived and without any merit. It is so said because petitioner has got no locus standi to challenge the order sanctioning the grant of Rs.12 lacs in favour of its neighbouring Gram Panchayat i.e. respondent No.5. No prejudice of any kind has been shown, which might have been caused to the petitioner by sanctioning the grant in favour of respondent No.5. In this view of the matter, present writ petition has been found wholly misconceived, bereft of merit and without any substance, thus, it must fail. No case for interference has been made out.

However, it is made clear that if the petitioner Gram Panchayat complains before the competent authority for sanction of the requisite amount of grant in its favour, the competent authority shall consider the said request made by the petitioner at an early date by passing an appropriate order, however, in accordance with law.

With the abovesaid observations made and directions issued, instant writ petition stands disposed of.
