RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (ORAL)

Feeling aggrieved against the alleged inaction on the part of respondent authorities, petitioner has approached this Court, by way of present writ petition under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India, seeking a writ in the nature of mandamus.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that when the genuine grievance of the petitioner was not being redressed, he finally approached the respondent authorities by way of self-contained representation dated 28.07.2015 (Annexure P-6) but the same is also pending decision. He further submits that petitioner will be satisfied in case respondent No.2 is directed to consider and decide the representation of the petitioner within a reasonable time by passing an appropriate order thereon.

Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and without expressing any opinion on merits of the case, Deputy Commissioner, Sonipat-respondent No.2 is directed to look into the matter, consider the grievance raised by the petitioner vide representation dated 28.07.2015 (Annexure P-6) and decide the same, keeping in view the directions issued by learned Civil Court vide its judgment dated 21.05.2015 (Annexure P-2) passed in Civil Suit No.113 of 2012 (Sanjay Vs. Subhash Verma and others) at an early date, by passing an appropriate order thereon, strictly in accordance with law but in any case within a period of three months from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order.

With the abovesaid observations made and directions issued, instant writ petition stands disposed of.
