1. The challenge in this petition filed under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India is to the election of Sarpach held on 10.01.2016 vide which the provisions of the Constitution have been violated as polling was conducted on the basis of forged voter list and not on the electoral rolls as provided by the Election Commission making a mockery of the democratic set up and totally against the vires of the Constitution as well as to the principles of natural justice.
2. After arguing for sometime, learned counsel for the petitioner states that he may be allowed to withdraw the present writ petition.
3. Dismissed as withdrawn.
