S. J. VAZIFDAR, CJ. (ORAL)

The petitioner essentially seeks an order asking the Commissioner of Income Tax to hear the appeals filed by them. By an order dated 09.04.2015 in CWP No.19144 of 2012, the matters were remanded to the CIT (Appeals) for passing orders in accordance with law, including the judgment of the Supreme Court referred to therein. There is nothing to suggest that the appeals will not be heard in their turn.

If the petitioner desires to have the appeals expedited, they are always at liberty to make an application to the same before the CIT (Appeals). Whether or not to grant the petitioner's appeal precedence is for the CIT (Appeals) to decide.
