CWP No.4262 of 2014
Date of decision: 08.08.2016

Vashu Kamboj

... Petitioner

Vs.

State of Haryana and others

... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK

Present: Mr. R.S. Mamli, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. R.S. Doon, AAG, Haryana.

RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (ORAL)

Learned counsel for the petitioner, at the very outset, fairly states that the petitioner shall invoke the arbitration clause and the Arbitrator may be directed to render the arbitration award at an early date.

Learned counsel for the State also fairly states that he has got no objection in case the request made by learned counsel for the petitioner is accepted.

In view of the above, present writ petition is disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to invoke the arbitration clause at the earliest. It also goes without saying that the moment arbitration clause is invoked by the petitioner, the Arbitrator appointed by the parties shall proceed further with the matter taking it to the logical end at the earliest possible time.

With the abovesaid observations made and directions issued, instant writ petition stands disposed of.
