RAJIV NARAIN RAINA, J. (ORAL)

Mr. Manuja states that the present writ petition has been rendered infructuous as the payments due have been made. However, the counsel for the petitioner states that since the petitioner has been compelled to knock at the door of this court to obtain relief for himself, he deserves to be compensated by payment of costs.

Consequently, the present writ petition is dismissed as infructuous with a direction to the respondents to pay a sum of Rs.10,000/- as costs to the petitioner within a period of one month from the date of receipt of a certified copy of this order.
