CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE PARAMJEET SINGH DHALIWAL

Present: Mr. S.K. Verma, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Paramjeet Singh Dhaliwal, J. (Oral)

The instant writ petition has been filed under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India for issuance of a writ in the nature of certiorari for quashing the impugned complaint dated 14.09.2015 (Annexure P-10) made by respondent No. 6

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that an identical complaint was made in the year 2014 against the petitioner by the same complainant, which was inquired into by the authorities. The petitioner was found innocent and a report dated 01.06.2015 (Annexure P-9) was sent. On the same set of allegations another complaint has been filed on 14.09.2015 (Annexure P-10) to the Chief Minister, on the basis of which another inquiry has been initiated.

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner and perused the paper-book.

The petitioner without resorting to alternative remedies in law has straightaway approached this Court, hence, this petition cannot be entertained. However, the petitioner will be at liberty to bring all the facts to the notice of the concerned authority, which is inquiring into the subsequent complaint. The authority will examine the contents of the earlier inquiry and the conclusion drawn by the competent authority and if the facts are identical then appropriate order should be passed in accordance with law.

Disposed of.
