CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK

Present: Mr. Rajesh Lamba, Advocate for the petitioner.

RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (ORAL)

Learned counsel for respondent No.1 submits that the Petroleum Corporation has decided to close the location in question, meaning thereby no outlet shall be allotted at this place to anybody, at this stage. He further submits that in this view of the matter, present writ petition has been rendered infructuous and the same may be disposed of, as such.

Faced with the above, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that let the present writ petition be disposed of, as having been rendered infructuous, in view of the statement made by learned counsel for respondent No.1, however, liberty may be granted to the petitioner to pursue his remedy, including laying challenge to the decision taken by respondent No.1, while closing the location.

In view of the above, present writ petition is disposed of, as having been rendered infructuous, however, with liberty as prayed for.
