Civil Writ Petition No.705 of 2013

The petitioner challenges action of the respondents whereby she was ordered to be transferred to Primary Health Centre, Narot Jaimal Singh from Primary Health Centre, Bhullar against vacant post.

Interim order was passed on 15.1.2013 whereby status quo as regards the services of the petitioner was ordered to be maintained till further orders. In fact the petitioner has continued for over three years at the Sub Centre, Balpurian, PHC Bhullar Distt. Gurdaspur.

In such circumstances, this Court is of the opinion that relief which the petitioner was seeking has been granted to her and the writ petition has been rendered infructuous as the petitioner remained posted at Balpurian for a period of over three years.

Since normally transfer orders are not to be interfered with, accordingly, the present writ petition is disposed of as having been rendered infructuous. It will be open to the respondents to transfer the petitioner from the present place of posting, if so required for administrative exigencies. In case the petitioner has any grouse or preference for posting, she is at liberty to represent to the authorities concerned for her grievance.
