

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CWP No.4337 of 2016

Date of Decision : 3.3.2016

Darshan Chand

....Petitioner

Versus

Financial Commissioner, Revenue, Haryana
and another

...Respondents

CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE MAHESH GROVER

....

Present: Mr.Paramjit Singh Jammu, Advocate
for the petitioner.

.....

MAHESH GROVER.J.

The only grievance that has been set out in the instant petition is that matter pertaining to ROR No.76 of 2010-11 titled as Darshan Chand v. Gopal and others was heard by respondent No.2 and orders reserved on 4.12.2014 but till date the pronouncement has not been made.

After hearing the learned counsel for the petitioner and noticing the nature of prayer made herein, I deem it appropriate to dispose of this petition, without issuance of notice to the other side as having recourse to this procedure is likely to delay the matter further, with a direction to respondent No.2 to decide the case referred to above as expeditiously as possible but not later than two months from the date of receipt of certified copy of the order. Ordered accordingly.

3.3.2016

dss

(MAHESH GROVER)
JUDGE