The matter between the appellant and the respondent stands settled by way of a compromise. The appellant has made a statement to that effect and has also placed on record an affidavit of respondent dated 20.05.2013 stating therein that the matter stands compromised between the parties. The appellant has further stated that after the compromise, the respondent along with the daughter is living with him in the matrimonial home. In view of the above, the appellant stated that this appeal may be withdrawn.

We order accordingly.

Copy of the order be supplied to the representative/counsel for the parties.
