CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE PARAMJEET SINGH

Present: Mr. Onkar Singh, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Instant writ petition has been filed under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India for issuance of a writ in the nature of certiorari for quashing order dated 03.11.2015 (Annexure P/6) passed by respondent no.3 and for issuance of writ of mandamus directing respondent no.2 to decide the appeal dated 23.11.2015 (Annexure P/7).

Learned counsel for the petitioner states that petitioner has already moved an appeal dated 23.11.2015 (Annexure P/7), but the same has not been decided. Perusal of Annexure P/7 indicates that it is in the shape of representation. Learned counsel further states that Annexure P/7 be treated as an appeal or in the alternative the petitioner may be permitted to file a fresh appeal.

Having heard learned counsel for the petitioner and after perusing the paper-book, however, without commenting on merits of the case, instant writ petition is disposed of without issuing notice to the respondents, with liberty to the petitioner to move proper appeal within 15 days from today before respondent no.2 – Director, Food, Civil Supply Consumer Affairs, Punjab. Respondent No.2 shall decide the representation (Annexure P/7)/fresh appeal that may be submitted by the petitioner, in accordance with law, preferably within a period of two months from the date of submission of fresh appeal or receipt of certified copy of this order, whichever is later.
