CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE PARAMJEET SINGH DHALIWAL

Present: Mr. M.L. Saggar, Sr. Advocate with

Paramjeet Singh Dhaliwal, J. (Oral)

Instant writ petition has been filed under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India for issuance of a writ in the nature of certiorari quashing the suspension order dated 29.03.2016 (Annexure P/17) passed under Section 22A of the Haryana Municipal Act, 1973 (hereinafter referred to as the "Act") by respondent no.2.

The remedy of appeal is available to the petitioner under Section 22A of the Act. Learned counsel for the petitioner states that due to peculiar circumstances, petitioner has preferred the instant writ petition as he has apprehension that due to political interference, the appeal of the petitioner may not be decided and he will be forced to continue under suspension.

Be that as it may, the fact remains that alternative remedy of appeal is available. As the only apprehension of the petitioner is that, his appeal may not be decided at the earliest, it is directed that if the petitioner files an appeal within a week from today, the same shall be decided, after affording opportunity of hearing to the parties, within one month from the date of filing of the appeal. The petitioner will be given liberty by the appellate authority to serve the opposite party dasti.

Disposed of.
