S. J. VAZIDAR, A. C. J. (ORAL)

The petitioners have challenged a notice dated 04.01.2016 calling upon them to show cause why the plot be not resumed and why an amount 10 per cent of the total amount be not forfeited.

2. The petitioners attempt to go into the accounts in support of their contention that the amounts claimed by the respondents are in excess. There is no warrant for interfering in our writ jurisdiction. The petitioners have filed a reply to the show cause notice. If the petitioners are aggrieved by the order passed in respect of the show cause notice, they are always at liberty to challenge the same.

3. The writ petition is accordingly disposed of.
