S. J. VAZIFDAR, A. C. J. (ORAL)

The petitioner alleges that respondent No. 6 i.e. the private respondent is carrying on illegal mining activities on the lands adjoining his. The complaint in this regard was made on 03.03.2016. Even earlier the complaints have been made.

2. The petition is disposed of by directing the official respondents to consider the petitioner's complaints including those contained in the writ petition itself and to take action, if necessary, in accordance with law. If necessary, the official respondents shall also pass interim orders/directions.

3. The official respondents shall comply with this order within four weeks from today after affording the petitioner and respondent No. 6 an opportunity of being heard.
