

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CWP No.9576 of 2016
Decided on : 17.05.2016

Inderpreet Singh ... Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab & others

... Respondents

CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE G.S. SANDHAWALIA

Present : Mr.S.K.Rattan, Advocate, for the petitioner.

G.S. Sandhawalia, J. (Oral)

The petitioner seeks the counting of his previous service rendered under respondents No.4 & 5, from 19.07.1972 to 12.05.1975 along with service rendered under respondents No.1 to 3 w.e.f. 25.05.1975 to 31.10.2006, for the purposes of pension.

Admittedly, the petitioner retired in the year 2006. For a period of almost 10 years, he has chosen not to agitate for his rights. In such circumstances, this Court does not feel that it is a fit case to exercise its extraordinary writ jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India.

Writ petition is, accordingly, dismissed. However, it will always be open to the petitioner to agitate for his rights before the alternative forums, available to him, in accordance with law, as it is the case of the counsel that it is a recurring cause of action.
