Instant writ petition has been filed under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India for issuance of a writ in the nature of mandamus, directing respondents to pay a compensation of ₹ 3,00,000/- and medical facilities free of cost to the petitioner, as provided in Haryana Victim Compensation Scheme, 2013 (hereinafter referred to as '2013 scheme').

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner and perused the paper-book.

The compensation has been sought on the ground that the petitioner is a victim and at her instance FIR No. 10 dated 27.01.2016, was initially registered under Section 498-A, 323, 342, 406, 506, 34 IPC but subsequently Section 498-A IPC was deleted and Section 376 (2) N IPC was added on basis of representation of the petitioner.

The petitioner is entitled to the compensation as per the provisions of the 2013 scheme. This issue cannot be decided in the writ petition. The petitioner is required to apply for the same before the competent authority.

At this stage, learned counsel for the petitioner prays for permission to withdraw the present petition with liberty to approach the competent authority, in view of the scheme framed by State of Haryana, dated 03.04.2013 (Annexure P-5).

Dismissed as withdrawn with liberty aforesaid.
