

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH.

F.A.O No. 396 of 2016(O&M)
Date of decision :19.02.2016

Smt. Vidya Devi and others

..... Appellants

Versus

Suresh Kumar and another

..... Respondents

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE DARSHAN SINGH

Present: Mr.Navmohit Singh, Advocate for the appellants.

DARSHAN SINGH,J

The present first appeal has been preferred against the award dated 28.08.2015 passed by the learned Motor Accident Claims Tribunal (for short 'Tribunal'), Kurukshetra, whereby the claimants have awarded the compensation to the tune of Rs. 20,70,400/- along with interest at the rate of 9 % per annum from the date of institution of the petition till realization on account of the death of Krishan Kumar in the motor vehicular accident, which took place on 20.01.2015 in the village Khanpur Kolian, District Kurukshetra.

2. The present appeal has been preferred for enhancement of the compensation.

3. Learned counsel for the appellant contended that claimant

no. 1-Smt. Vidya Devi widow of deceased-Krishan Kumar has not been awarded any amount towards love and affection. Thus, he contended that the amount of compensation is inadequate.

4. I have duly considered the aforesaid contentions.

5. I do not found any substance in the plea raised by learned counsel for the appellants. Learned tribunal has properly assessed the amount of compensation under all the heads. He has awarded Rs. 1 lacs to claimant no. 1 towards loss of consortium and has also awarded Rs. 1 lac each to the children on account of loss of love and affection, care and guidance. So, there is no deficiency in computation of the compensation in the impugned award. The compensation assessed by the learned tribunal is just and proper, which does not call for any further enhancement.

6. Consequently, the present appeal being without any merit is hereby dismissed.
