Respondent-husband filed a petition under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act seeking a decree of divorce. He was granted a decree of divorce which is now under challenge before this Court at the instance of the appellant-wife.

Both the parties have compromised their matrimonial dispute before the Mediation and Conciliation Centre attached to this Court. It was agreed between the parties that the respondent-husband should pay totally a sum of ₹ 5 lacs towards permanent alimony. Out of which, a sum of ₹ 2.5 lacs has already been paid by the respondent-husband to the appellant-wife during the hearing on 22.08.2016. Now, the respondent-husband undertakes to pay the remaining sum of ₹ 2.5 lacs, the moment the appellant gives no objection for quashing of the FIR lodged by her against the respondent-husband. Appellant-wife also undertakes to give consent for quashing of the FIR lodged by her against the respondent-husband on receipt of ₹ 2.5 lacs being the balance permanent alimony.

In case, the parties do not comply with the terms and conditions of the settlement arrived at between them, a liberty is given to them to revive the appeal. Both the parties have agreed to remain bound by the terms and conditions of the settlement arrived at between them.

In view of above settlement arrived at between the parties, as prayed for by them, the appeal stands dismissed as withdrawn.
