

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB & HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH.

FAO No.7658 of 2014

Date of decision: December 12, 2016

Om Parkash

... Appellant

Versus

Dharambir and others

...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJAN GUPTA

Present: Mr. J.P. Sharma, Advocate for the appellant.

Rajan Gupta, J.

Appellant/claimant have challenged the findings of the tribunal on the limited question of computation of compensation.

Learned counsel for the appellant submits that tribunal has erred in not granting adequate compensation under usual heads like medicines, physical disability, pain and suffering etc. He, thus, submits that reasonable amount may be granted to the appellant under the aforesaid heads separately.

I have heard learned counsel for the appellant and given careful thought to the facts of the case.

It appears that accident took place on 07.10.2012, wherein appellant suffered injuries on various parts of his body. Admittedly, accident took place due to rash and negligent driving respondent No.1 driver of the offending truck. The tribunal granted Rs.33,495/- for medicines, hospitalization charges and transportation etc. He was also granted compensation of Rs.20,000/- for 10% permanent disability and Rs.10,000/- towards pain and suffering. A total compensation of Rs.63,500/- has been granted to the appellant. He has also been granted interest @ 9% per annum from the date of filing of petition till realization. I am of the considered view that there is no error in the impugned award. Thus, no interference in the appellate jurisdiction of this court is called for.

Dismissed.
