In view of the reasons mentioned in the application, the same is hereby allowed and the delay of 83 days in filing the present appeal is hereby condoned.

FAO No.7589 of 2015

The present appeal has been preferred by the appellants-claimants against the award dated 22.09.2014, passed by learned Motor Accidents Claims Tribunal, Rewari (hereinafter called the “Tribunal”), vide which they has been awarded compensation to the tune of ₹8,95,000/- on account of the death of Mahipal Singh caused in the motor vehicular accident which took place on 15.12.2012.

2. The present appeal has been preferred by the appellants-claimants for the enhancement of the amount of compensation.

3. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and gone through the paper-book meticulously.

4. Learned counsel for the appellants contended that the learned Tribunal has not added any future prospects to the income of the deceased. No amount towards love and affection have been awarded to the minor children and mother of the deceased. Thus, he contended that the compensation awarded by the learned Tribunal is highly inadequate.

5. On the other hand, Rahul Pathania, Advocate, learned counsel for respondent-Insurance Company contended that the deceased was not having any permanent job, so future prospects were not admissible towards his income. He further contended that the compensation awarded by the learned Tribunal is just and appropriate keeping in view the antecedents, age and income of the deceased.

6. I have duly considered the aforesaid contentions.

7. As per the case of the claimants, deceased Mahipal Singh was working as a mason and was earning Rs.15,000/- per month. But on appreciating the evidence brought on record, as there was no documentary evidence regarding profession of deceased, the learned Tribunal has rightly taken the income of the deceased to be ₹5000/- per month. However, the learned Tribunal has not awarded any future prospects to the income of the deceased. It is a fact of common knowledge that the income of every individual increases with the passage of time. That is why even the minimum wages are revised periodically by the government. So, the future prospects should have been added to the income of the deceased. At the time of death the deceased was below 40 years of age, so 50% of his income shall be added towards the future prospects. The total income of the deceased comes to ₹7500/- per month i.e. ₹90,000/- per annum. There were five dependents, so 1/4th of the income of the deceased shall be deducted towards his personal and living expenses. The remainder comes to ₹67,500/-. As per the Matriculation Examination Certificate Ex.PW3/B, the date of birth of the deceased was 15.05.1982. The present accident has taken place on 15.12.2012. Thus, on the date of accident, the age of the deceased was 30 years and 07 months. So, the multiplier of 16 shall be applicable. So, the loss of dependency comes to ₹10,80,000/-.

8. In addition to the aforesaid amount, the appellants-claimants

No.2 & 3, the minor children of deceased, shall be entitled to a sum of ₹1,00,000/- towards loss of love, care and guidance. Appellant-claimant No.4 the mother of deceased shall also be entitled to ₹1,00,000/- on account of loss of love and affection of her son. Learned Tribunal has rightly awarded a sum of ₹1,00,000/- to appellant-claimant No.1 Smt. Pinki Devi, the widow of deceased towards loss of consortium, a sum of ₹25,000/- towards funeral and last rites expenses and a sum of ₹5000/- towards loss of estate. The total amount of compensation payable to the claimants comes to ₹ 14,10,000/-.

9. Thus, keeping in view my aforesaid discussion, the present appeal is hereby partly allowed. The amount of compensation payable to appellants-claimants is enhanced to ₹14,10,000/- from ₹8,95,000/- as awarded by the Tribunal. The appellants-claimants shall also be entitled to interest at the rate as determined by the learned Tribunal on the enhanced amount from the date of filing the petition till realisation. The liability to pay the enhanced amount shall remain as determined by the learned Tribunal in the main award.

10. As the matter with respect to future prospects has been referred to the Larger Bench of the Hon'ble Apex Court in case National Insurance Company Vs. Pushpa, (2015) 9 SCC 166, in order to safeguard the interest of respondent No.3-Insurance Company, the amount of compensation under the head future prospects shall be disbursed to the claimants against adequate security in the form of sufficient indemnity bonds to the satisfaction of the learned Tribunal/executing Court, wherein the claimants will undertake that if the Hon'ble Apex Court adjudicates that the casual labourers/persons not holding the permanent jobs will not be entitled to the future prospects, then they will be bound to refund the amount of future prospects received by them on moving the requisite application by the respondent-Insurance Company and the learned Tribunal will be competent to take the steps without making any reference to this Court.
