OM PARKASH

Versus

KUSAM

....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M. JEYAPPAUL
HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE SNEH PRASHAR

Present: Mr. H.P.S. Aulakh, Advocate for the appellant.

Mr. K.G. Chaudhary, Advocate for the respondent.

M. JEYAPPAUL, J.(Oral)

Both the parties along with their respective counsel are present in Court today. They have suffered individual statements in second motion. They reiterated their stand taken by them during first motion. A sum of Rs.6 lacs towards permanent alimony and other claims was tendered by the appellant to the respondent who had received the same. Gold ornaments had also been returned by the appellant to the respondent. The parties have been living separately for the past 8 long years. In our view, there is no scope for them to live together as husband and wife. The averments made by them in the joint petition under Section 13-B of the Hindu Marriage Act are found to be true. Therefore, a decree of divorce by mutual consent dissolving their marriage is granted.

Decree sheet be prepared accordingly.

Appeal stands disposed of.
