HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE LISA GILLPresent: Mr. Rakesh Gupta, Advocate for the appellant.Mr. H.S. Bedi, Advocate for Mr. Vivek Salathia, Advocate for the respondent.RAJIVE BHALLA, J.(ORAL)

Counsel for the parties state that as parties are residing together, the appeal may be dismissed as withdrawn.

In support of the statement, counsel for the appellant has filed the affidavit of Ajay Sharma son of Ram Nath Sharma which reads as follows:

2. That deponent/appellant and respondent have amicably settled the matter with the intervention of the respectable of the society.
3. That now deponent/appellant and respondent both are residing together hence in view of present circumstances the appeal has rendered as infructuous.
4. That the deponent/appellant may be granted liberty to restore the proceedings of the present appeal in case the present settlement does not continue or the respondent violate the same”.

In view of the statement made by counsel for the parties and the affidavit filed by the appellant, the appeal has been rendered infructuous and, is disposed of, accordingly.
