

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

FAO-M-398-2015

DATE OF DECISION :- July 22, 2016

Manika Sharma

...Appellant

Versus

Saurabh

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE M.JEYAPPAUL

HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE SNEH PRASHAR

Present:- Mr. R.S. Chauhan, Advocate for the appellant.

Mr. Gurmit Singh, Advocate for the respondent.

M.JEYAPPAUL, J.

Petitioner no.1 and petitioner no. 2 have jointly filed petition under Section 13B of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 praying for divorce by mutual consent. They suffered statement in 1st motion as well as 2nd motion. They have reiterated their stand that it is not possible for them to revive the marital relationship. They have amicably settled the matrimonial dispute between them. We find that the averments in the petition as well as in the statements suffered by them in 1st motion and 2nd motion are true and there is no scope for the parties to live as husband and wife. Therefore, a decree for divorce by mutual consent is hereby passed thereby dissolving the marriage between the parties by mutual consent. The appeal is accordingly disposed of. Decree sheet be prepared.
