

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB & HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH.

FAO-M-57-2015 (O&M)
Date of Decision: 11.07.2016.

Jaiveer Singh

....Appellant.

VERSUS

Geeta Rani

....Respondent.

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M. JEYAPPAUL
HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE SNEH PRASHAR

Present: Mr. Aftab Singh Khara, Advocate for the appellant.

Mr. Akash Singla, Advocate for the respondent.

M. JEYAPPAUL, J.

Both the parties were present. They suffered statements in the shape of affidavits in second motion. They have been living separately for a period of more than one year prior to the filing of the joint petition for divorce under Section 13-B of the Hindu Marriage Act. It is found that they are not able to live together. They have mutually agreed that the marriage between them should be dissolved. The averments in the joint petition are found to be true.

In terms of the compromise, during first motion, a sum of Rs.6,00,000/- in the shape of bank draft was paid by the petitioner-husband to the respondent-wife and the same was received by her. Today, during second motion, a sum of Rs.6,00,000/- in the shape of bank draft was tendered by the petitioner to the respondent and the same was received by her. She undertook to keep a sum of Rs.6,00,000/- in fixed deposit in the name of the child born out of the wedlock till the child attains majority. The child will be in the custody of the respondent-wife. Petitioner has undertaken to withdraw the petition filed by him for custody of the child. The compromise arrived at between the parties is found appended as Annexure-A. The case, if any, preferred by the rival parties be withdrawn as they have compromised the dispute.

In view of the above, a decree for divorce by mutual consent with the effect from the date of decree is granted. Petition is accordingly ordered. Decree sheet be prepared.
