1. Whether Reporters of Local papers may be allowed to see the judgment?
2. To be referred to the Reporters or not?
3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest?

Surya Kant, J. (Oral)

The instant letters patent appeal is preferred by the State of Haryana against the interlocutory order dated 29.05.2015 whereby learned Single Judge has directed the payment of salary and other allowances to the respondents during the period of summer vacations.

The claim of the appellants is that the respondents have been engaged Guest Faculties on payment of honorarium per lecture.

When this appeal came up for hearing on 20.08.2015, operation of the order passed by learned Single Judge was stayed.

Since the main writ petition is now listed before the learned Single Judge for hearing on 21.11.2016, we dispose of this appeal without expressing any views on merits, with a request to learned Single Judge to decide the main case on the date fixed or at the earliest.

Till then, the order dated 20.08.2015 passed by this Court shall continue to operate. However, if the respondents are found entitled to any relief for summer vacations, learned Single Judge shall be at liberty to grant the same. It is further clarified that the observations made by learned Single Judge in the interlocutory order under appeal shall have no bearing on the merits of the case at the time of final disposal.

Ordered accordingly.

Dasti.
