We do not find any infirmity in the order of the learned Single Judge dated 25.5.2015 which has been impugned in the present appeal.

The appellant was selected as a Guest Faculty Lecturer in Punjabi and worked for academic Sessions 2007-08, 2008-09 and 2009-10.

Upon termination of this arrangement, he made no attempt to agitate this issue but filed a writ petition in 2013 with a prayer that he should be permitted to join the academic session of 20012-13.

The learned Single Judge negated this prayer on the ground that once the arrangement had been terminated putting an end to the contract of employment, he could not after a lapse of almost three years make an attempt to get back the benefit which stood extinguished. The fact that the appellant filed a writ petition in 2013, after a lapse of two years of extinguishment of the contract, does not redeem the situation in any way. Dismissed leaving the appellant to the subsequent process of employment if undertaken by him.
