States that there are facts which intervened during the pendency of the writ petition which were, however, not brought to the notice of this Court even though related material was on record.

If that is so, then we are not inclined to entertain the issue which was never raised before the learned Single Judge.

Confronted with this situation, learned counsel for the appellant prays for permission to withdraw the instant appeal with liberty to take recourse to alternate remedies.

Dismissed as withdrawn with the liberty aforesaid granted.
