(In RSA No.1852 of 2016)

Mr. Navneet Singh, Advocate for the appellant
(In RSA No.2147 of 2016 & 2118 of 2016)

AMIT RAWAL, J. (Oral)

This Court vide order dated 05.09.2016 has sent this case to Mediation and Conciliation Centre of this Court with a hope that parties may arrived at a compromise.

As per the report of Mediator, parties have compromised the matter. Report is dated 27.10.2016.

Both the learned counsel appearing on behalf of parties have signed the settlement agreement after taking instructions from their client which is not disputed.

Accordingly, appeals are disposed of in terms of settlement dated 27.10.2016. Parties shall be bound by the settlement. Settlement be made part and parcel of the decree.

Both the counsels for the appellants in appeals and in cross appeals submits that they may be allowed to seek refund of the court fees. As the matter has been resolved between the parties, I deem it appropriate that all the appellants would be entitled to refund of the court fees paid in all the appeals in accordance with law.
