RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (ORAL)

Learned counsel for the applicants, at the very outset, submits that since respondent No.1-plaintiff Pritam Singh is no more, the suit would abate, because of which the instant transfer application would not survive.

In view of the above statement made by learned counsel for the applicants, instant transfer application is ordered to be disposed of, as having been rendered infructuous, however, with liberty to the applicants to file a fresh transfer application, if necessity arises.

Disposed of, accordingly.
