

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

109

RSA No. 5321 of 2016(O&M)

Date of decision:04.11.2016

Geeta

.... Appellant

Versus

State of Haryana and others

.... Respondents

CORAM: Hon'ble Mr. Justice P.B. Bajanthri

Present: Mr.Garima Sharma, Advocate for the appellant.

P.B. Bajanthri, J. (Oral)

In the instant appeal, the appellant has questioned the validity of the appellate court order. Before the trial Court no cause of action has accrued to file a suit. The appellant on presumption and assumption that his services would be terminated, had filed a suit. Such a suit itself is not maintainable.

2. During the pendency of the present RSA, learned counsel for the appellant submitted in the month of January, 2016 the appellant's services have been terminated. However, copy of the order of termination has not been made available to the appellant.

3. In view of the above development, the present appeal do not survive for consideration. If the appellant is aggrieved by the order of termination passed in the month of January, 2016 cause of action accrues only in the month of January, 2016. Reserving liberty to the appellant to pursue the termination matter in accordance with law.

Appeal stands dismissed.
