RSA No.4263 of 2015 (O&M)
Decided on: 16.02.2016

Ram Kishan and another

....Appellants

Versus

Dalbir Singh and another

....Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE REKHA MITTAL

Present: Mr. Sukhdeep Parmar, Advocate for the appellants.

REKHA MITTAL J. (Oral)

The present regular second appeal has been directed against the consistent findings recorded by the Courts below whereby the suit filed by Dalbir Singh-respondent for possession of the suit property has been decreed by the learned trial Court and the judgment and decree passed by the trial Court has been affirmed in appeal.

Counsel for the appellants has submitted that the Courts below have totally ignored the oral as well as documentary evidence produced on record and the judgments and decrees passed by the Courts below are based on surmises and conjectures and thus, liable to be set-aside.

I have heard counsel for the appellants, perused the records particularly the judgments and decrees passed in the proceedings.

Counsel for the appellants, though has contended that the Courts have ignored the oral and documentary evidence available on record but he has failed to point out any relevant piece of evidence which escaped notice of the Courts while adjudicating material questions of fact and law framed for determination in view of the issues culled-out in the case. I have carefully perused the judgments passed by both the Courts but unable to find any error much less illegality therein as would call for intervention. In this view of the matter, there is no merit in the contention of the appellants that any substantial question of law arises for adjudication.

For the foregoing reasons, finding no merit, the appeal is dismissed in limine. No order as to costs.
