Non-bailable warrants issued against petitioner No.2 reported to have been received back unserved.

In this case, when the petitioners had approached this Court for protection, a condition was imposed that petitioner No.2 will deposit a sum of Rs.1,50,000/- in the form of FDR in the name of petitioner No.1. Lateron, it was reported that no FDR had been created. That is why, non-bailable warrants had been issued against petitioner No.2. It may be noticed that petitioner No.1 has not approached this Court for taking any action against petitioner No.2 for not depositing the said amount in her name.

Therefore, on the point of depositing the said amount in the name of petitioner No.1, the instant petition stands disposed of. In case, petitioner No.1 appears before this Court and makes a complaint, action can be taken against petitioner No.2.
