Vs.

Union of India and others

....Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AMOL RATTAN SINGH

Present: None.

Amol Rattan Singh, J (Oral)

This is the 5th time that the appeal has been listed, without it having been argued even once, and even today, on third call, the learned counsel for the appellant is not present, despite the order dated 04.04.2016, by which it had been stated that if the matter is not argued on the next date of hearing, i.e. on 06.05.2016, appropriate orders would still be passed.

On 06.05.2016, the learned counsel for the appellant again requested for an adjournment on the ground that he had not prepared the case and consequently, the matter had been adjourned to today.

In the aforesaid circumstances, the appeal is dismissed for non-prosecution.
